

Touched by Adoption

a support group for adult adoptees

This group is for men and women

- Who were adopted
- Who may not have started the "search"
- Are considering a search
- Those who have been through their search for parents and birth families
- Those who want to share their stories, success, frustrations and pain.

The group will provide participants with a variety of resources, based on both research and experience.

I have been moved by the stories and emotions of clients who feel alone and isolated and want to be able to tell their story to others who can deeply understand.

Time: Tues @ 6:30-8pm Group will begin when slots full

Location: 1020 SW Taylor #820, Portland, OR

Cost: Free initial interview, $40.00 per session
